"My father, at about the age of 60, lost all the hair from the top of his head. After one month's trial of Ayer's Hair Vigor, the hair began coming, and in three months, he had a fine growth of hair of the natural color."—P. J. Collier, Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

Mr. Jules Baumann, the well known artist of Prescott, Arizona, has just returned from the Grand Canyon, and he has taken a general view to be seen from John Hance's ranch. These views will be lithographed and can be had at very reasonable prices when completed.

G. A. Woods has been appointed Manager and General agent for Arizona by the Mutual Fund Life Association, of New York. Their record of business so far this year exceeds $5,000,000. They lead all premium old line companies, giving insurance at less than half the cost.

F. B. Jacobs, deputy U. S. Land and Mineral surveyor, has been awarded a contract for the survey of five townships of land from Surveyor General Johnson. One township lies near Belmont another just west of Williams and two in the northern part of Yavapai and one in Mohave county, on which is located the townsite of Kingman.

A. C. Morse has a force of men at work on the road to the Grand Canyon and will put the road in excellent condition. He has been working nine men for the past two weeks and it will take about three weeks more to finish the work, which will cost about $500, of which the citizens of Flagstaff subscribed $200, and Mr. Morse will put up the rest.

The jailor of the county jail is allowed $60 per month by the Board of Supervisors for the care of the jail. The sum is a reasonable one, and that institution should in the future be kept clean and in a neat condition as possible. Although the Board of Supervisors should take action towards the building of another jail at the earliest possible date.

An synchronizing, electric clock system, has been put in a number of business houses here by the Western Union Telegraph company. The time is received every day at 9 o'clock a. m. from the St. Louis line, and simultaneously, by all the clocks on the circuit. The following business firms have clocks on the circuit: The Arizona Lumber and Timber Company, A. & P. depot, T. J. Coalter, W. G. Henry, P. D. Berry, W. J. Murphy, Leix and Hines and Bayless Brothers, and several others will have these time pieces put in soon.

Several weeks ago, M. J. Keys a correspondent of the St. Joseph Daily Gazette visited this place, and the Grand Canyon of the Colorado. During his stay here he called upon our business men and represented that he would write up Flagstaff its business resources, etc. etc., provided they would take 1,500 copies of the daily edition of that issue, which they agreed to do. The issue of the Gazette of June 14th contained the article. It was a fine description of the writers trip to the Canyon, not one word about Flagstaff or the business interests here. The article is unsatisfactory and an explanation is in order from Mr. Keys but, as he is now in California and does not intend to return here he will let his patrons worry it out.

A new metal has been added to the list found in Coconino county. C. H. McClure and Niles Cameron, who have claims in the Grand Canyon, have been trying to find out for the past two months what kind of mineral they had found. After sending to the leading assayers of Denver and San Francisco without results they sent a specimen to the Edison works, and the ore was pronounced Molybdenum. The value is not known but it is presumably not great. It is used in coloring pottery when a blue is desired.

OBSEQUIES

Of the Late Claiborne Jackson Pitts.

On Sunday last all that was mortal of our late esteemed citizen, C. J. Pitts, were laid to rest in the silent tomb.

From the family residence the remains were taken to the M. E. Church, which place was filled to overflowing by friends and fellow citizens of the deceased, who had come to hear words of comfort spoken by the Rev. N. F. Norton. The choir rendered several selections among which was one of the deceased favorites, "It is Well With My Soul."

Amid a drizzling rain and high wind one of the largest funerals ever seen in this town, proceeded to the new cemetery where the beautiful burial services of the Masonic Order were held at the grave. Mr. D. F. Hart, W. M. of Flagstaff Lodge No. 7, of which the deceased was a worthy member, conducting the services.

The Masonic brethren turned out in a body and a large number of visitors were in the procession from neighboring towns.

The Odd Fellows also turned out in a body in respect to the memory of the deceased.

This was the first interment in the new cemetery which has just been purchased, and the Masonic and Odd Fellow Orders have each secured a section for their respective burial grounds.

A FINE MEDAL.

The gun club medal to be given to the winning gun club in the shooting contest on the Fourth of July, is a handsome one, and will be a valuable trophy for the winning club. The medal is of gold, and together with the pendant, is three inches long by one and three quarters wide. On the pin in black enameled letters are the words "Flagstaff Medal." The medal is suspended by two gold chains. Radiating lines form the background. In the center is a trap with a pigeon flying from it. Below the trap are two shotguns crossed. The medal is surrounded with a wreath of laurel leaves. The medal is valued at $50. The medal was ordered through the enterprising firm of Cook & Lee, jewelers of this place, and is on exhibition at their store.

WILLIAMS NOTES.

Ferd Nellis has a lot of wool ready for shipment.

Urbano Garcia, a first-class saddle maker, has recently located here.

That the wind blows here all of our citizens will admit, but we never have great clouds of dust.

Clark & Adams have commenced sawing lumber and will open a lumber yard here this summer.

The A. & P. are moving lots of freight this week, and the trainmen will have a good week next pay day.

The Thornton residence will be completed in a couple of weeks. It is the largest and best finished building in this vicinity.

J. B. Elmore and wife are now residents of Williams. Mr. Elmore has just completed a neat cottage on the lot adjoining the church.

There is demand here for more dwelling houses, and there is an opportunity for some enterprising capitalist to invest his surplus in paying property.

The foundation of the new M. E. Church is about completed and the corner stone will be laid about July 1st. Henry Patterson has the contract for laying the foundation.

The A. & P. railroad are putting in new and extensive stock yards on the north side of the track at the east end of the yards. The new yards are much more convenient than the old.

E. R. Bayless is our barber now. He has a neat shop in the rear of Nellis Bros' lodging house. Ed expects to move his family from Flagstaff to this place as soon as he can obtain a house.

Ferd Nellis has under contemplation the building of a two story brick building on the present location of his saloon, and lodging house. The present wooden building will be moved back and converted into a lodging house.

The Salzmanns are building a store adjoining their old site. The building is of stone and will be 25x65 feet with 13 foot ceiling and will have an iron front and will be an ornament to our town.

Two brick yards are now running in this place, and are making a fine quality of brick. The product of these yards will be used in Williams, and perhaps a couple more kilns will be made during the season.

A man by the name of Summers is sick at Taber's lodging house. He is one of those unfortunates who are classed as "indigent sick" and the board of supervisors should look after him.

John Davis and an old prospector are off on a prospecting tour to new mineral discoveries in the Grand Canyon north of Ash Fork. Some rich rock has been brought in from that location. What it will develop remains yet to be seen.

Our town is having an incipient boom, this year. Houses are going up in every direction, and town lots are changing hands, when the question of title is settled, which it will be soon, a number of good buildings will be erected in the business portion of town.

The rodeo in this section is still going on. The cattlemen report a satisfactory "calf crop;" it being much larger than last year. The grass is abundant and water plenty. The stockmen are well pleased with the outlook and expect a profitable year.

The old depot has been remodeled and fitted up for an office for the train dispatchers, who are expected here from Winslow next week. They will have neat and well arranged offices. The A. & P. agent occupies a box car at present, but will have a better office sometime in the future.

W. W. Bass is building a road to the Grand Canyon north of this place. Mr. Bass believes that this portion of
